Dear Harold,

Jerry possesses the best of intentions. If his judgement seems flawed, well try to overlook it.

I understand that Sylvia had a severe asthma attack.

The Bremer Case fits a pattern. The early Glue Factory assassinations - famous and obscure, domestic and foreign - followed the typical contract killer methodology. After the J.F.K./M.L.K. terminations, it became obvious as controversy mounted that this approach, while successful on an operational level, wouldn't "work" any longer for public consumption. Thus, R.F.K and Wallace had to be removed by deranged assassins who would be "seized". Psychotic and Mental "basket cases", a Bremer/Sirhan would never be believed even if he could distinguish fantasy from reality.

Do you recall Garrett Wayne Trapnell? He may well have been an early - if abortive - figure in this direction.

"The Higher Circles" had no use for Wallace. And he caused have cut into a Nixon vote.

Note the locals found a second gun (9m.m., Army) after the F.B.I. had searched Brennan's car.

F.B.I. incompetence or worse! Perhaps, a key to the Gervais article is the D.J./General Motors set up. Is the D.J. an employment agency for informers and what does G.M. obtain from the D.J.? for giving Gervais 18 grand! This is one hell of a story for Ralph Nader.

The C.R.C. - interesting, if true. Rand is "Project Star" - a mystery. At this point, a solution to the assassinations would have to involve a participant's confession or the discovery of memos/data. Any internal agency data would not go into the archives as per The Pentagon Papers."

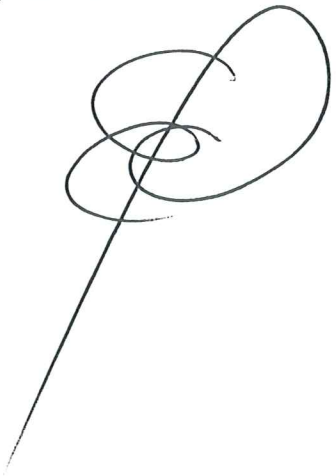
As you so acutely stated, we only know what did not happen.

Don't let the G.S./J.P. affair depress you.

Do your own thing. Perhaps, you and Howard could work together on some project.

A work of broad scope which could put it altogether ------.

The Assassinations, as a subject per se, is too narrow on a commercial level.

Take Care.


Sincerely,
